

DANIELLE GRANFAR
Principal Consultant

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE: 15 years plus

IN-HOUSE EXPERIENCE: Entrepreneur, Family Businesses, Manufacturing, Professional Services, Natural Resources and Consulting sectors

CAREER

With a creative and entrepreneurial spirit, Danielle brings a multidisciplinary background in education, leadership development, and business strategy to engage clients across a wide range of sectors to drive organizational change. She has worked with clients in the non-profit, educational and private sectors to design, facilitate and guide their strategic planning, management and people practices. Her expertise in business acumen is rooted in her aptitude to think strategically, provide solutions, plan and ultimately deliver on all business goals.

Danielle's has built businesses from the ground up, transformed underperforming businesses through strategy formulation/clarification and helped leaders achieve triple-digit growth. She has held management and leadership roles across industries – including manufacturing, education and professional services. Most recently as a consultant for an international firm her work focused on creating cultures that support high performance and transformational leadership development as well as facilitating, coaching and consulting with client organizations on business, organizational and leadership strategy.

Danielle is passionate about building enduring organizations through sparking transformation and developing leadership capacity. She enjoys designing innovative solutions that drive performance and growth, align cultures, and connect leadership development to business results. Born in the United States, and raised in Barcelona Spain, Danielle has extensive global work experience having worked throughout the Americas and Europe. Danielle is fluent in English, Spanish and Catalan, and has advanced competency in French and Italian.

EDUCATION

Danielle holds a Master's degree in Adult Education specializing in Workplace Learning and Change from the University of Toronto and an undergraduate degree in History and Latin American Studies, as well as a BEd in Education from the University of British Columbia. Danielle is also certified in Emotional Intelligence in Action and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator.

OTHER ROLES AND INTERESTS

Danielle is committed to personal and social transformation. She participates in community building activities and volunteers in a Youth Empowerment Program designed to build leadership capacity in young people. Danielle is also passionate about health and wellness and does pro bono fitness training and nutrition coaching in her free time.

Contact Danielle at danielleg@krstrategy.com.